San Jose, CA 95110

DETAILS:

Earlier this week, the Sheriff's Office was notified by school officials that 3 dark complexion dolls were found hung at separate schools in Saratoga. The Sheriff's Office takes these cases seriously, with utmost urgency, and are investigating these heinous acts as hate crimes.

If the public has any leads regarding the potential suspect(s), or has information regarding who may have purchased dark complexion dolls in the recent past, please contact Detective Sergeant Ramon Marquez at 408-808-4559, or by email at ramon.marquez@shf.sccgov.org. Alternatively, anyone can contact the Sheriff's Office Investigative Services anonymous tip line at 408-808-4431.

All other inquires may be directed to the Los Gatos-Saratoga Union High School District, the Campbell Unified School District, or the Saratoga Union School District.

"Hate has no place in Santa Clara County. The Sheriff's Office will thoroughly investigate these incidents and request prosecution of the offenders to the fullest extent of the law." -Acting Sheriff Ken Binder
